TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

A DEPOSIT/PAYMENT IS REQUIRED TO CONFIRM ALL BOOKINGS

All enrolments into a Heavy Vehicle Licencing course require a deposit to make a booking, deposits include a $100.00 administration fee which is non-refundable if course is cancelled.

LICENCING FEES

All students completing a Heavy Vehicle Licence course will be required to apply to VicRoads for their official licence after successfully completing the training and pay a VicRoads Licence fee of $31.50. (Note this is payable by the student to VicRoads on successful completion of the course.)

CANCELLATION POLICY

We have a FULL 7-day cancellation/change of date policy. If you require to change, reschedule or cancel your course we must be notified a minimum FULL 7 day prior to the commencement of your course. Failure to do this will result in all fees paid being lost, fees will also be lost if you fail to turn up for your course. Please note all courses include a non-refundable $100.00 administration fee.

LATE POLICY

Students who arrive late for their course will have that time deducted from the overall training time.
Example: if you run 1 hour late, your course will be cut short by 1 hour and missed time will require to be made up on the next available booking date which could be up to a 4-week waiting time; depending on current course bookings.
If an applicant is more than 2 hours late for your course, this is considered as a 'no-show' and all course fee's paid will be forfeited.

LANGUAGE, LITERACY & NUMERACY TESTING

Before any training can commence with Barkly Driving School, each applicant must successfully complete a Language, Literacy and Numeracy test. If an applicant cannot pass the Language, Literacy and Numeracy test as per the marking guidelines, a booking cannot be made.

THEORY TESTING LIGHT RIGID/MEDIUM RIGID/HEAVY RIGID

Before any training can commence with Barkly Driving School, each applicant must successfully complete a VicRoads theory test, this theory test is based on the Victorian Bus & Truck Handbook. This theory test is composed of 32 multiple choice questions. Failure to pass this test will result in further charges and a delay to your course.

The Victorian Bus and Truck handbook can be either downloaded for free from our website or it can be purchased for $25 from our office or VicRoads. This handbook must be studied prior to the commencement of your course.

PRESCRIBED MEDICATION

If you take any prescribed medication you are required to complete a Medical Form from VicRoads. This must be filled out by your treating doctor and taken to VicRoads directly for a clearance. A booking cannot be made until you receive clearance with VicRoads. Medical conditions that can affect driving ability include (but are not limited to): Hypertension, Diabetes, Sleep Apnoea, Vision Defects, Epilepsy, Hearing Defects, Psychiatric Disorders, Parkinson's disease and/or Multiple Sclerosis. If you are unsure, please contact VicRoads directly on 13 11 70.

EYESIGHT TESTING

You will be required to pass a standard eyesight test as per VicRoads requirement, if you have pre-existing vision defects you will be required to complete a VicRoads Eyesight Report. A booking cannot be made until you receive clearance with VicRoads. Failure to pass the eyesight test on the day due to vision defects will result in a loss of fees. If you are concerned about completing this eyesight test, please visit our office outside the 7-day cancellation policy to sit this test.

DRESS ATTIRE

When completing a course at Barkly Driving School you must be wearing covered shoes, no thongs/sandals/open toed shoes are allowed. If you do arrive for your course wearing either of these, you will be sent home to retrieve suitable footwear and the time taken to do so will be deducted from your course hours. Comfortable clothing is to be worn; Barkly Driving School will provide high-vis vests.

MOBILE PHONE USAGE

All students are required to keep their phones on silent and are not permitted to use them during training. Any student caught using a mobile phone during any theory testing will have their course cancelled and fees forfeited.

RE-ASSESSMENTS

In the case that the applicant is to fail their driving test, re-tests are free of charge, although there will be extra charges for further training. (Please note retests are not conducted on the same day.) The training charges for each Heavy Vehicle licence category is $150.00 per hour, the number of hours is depending on how many hours the instructor advises the applicant requires.
