Licence requirements

To undertake any heavy vehicle course, students must meet the current VicRoads eligibility requirements for the course type they are enrolling into, this is the student's responsibility and Barkly Driving School holds no responsibility for incorrect/inaccurate information being provided by the student. All students must hold a current licence which is not cancelled or disqualified. It is the student's responsibility to contact Barkly Driving School if their licence gets cancelled or suspended in the time between date of booking and their course date. If any student has previously been ordered to install and use an alcohol Interlock device ('I' condition licence), it is required that this device be removed from your vehicle and the condition on the student's licence be removed before any course can commence.

Enrolment confirmation

All students who make a booking via phone or internet, must attend Barkly Driving Schools office in person a minimum of 7-days prior to the commencement of their course date to complete enrolment paperwork, an eyesight test and a Language, Literacy and Numeracy test. If a student does not attend Barkly Driving Schools office a minimum 7-days prior to their course date to complete these requirements and attempts to pass them on the same day as their course and fail any component or are found to have provided inaccurate information about their booking will forfeit all monies paid and will not be able to apply for a refund.

Deposits/payments

All students enrolling into a heavy vehicle course are required to pay a deposit to secure their booking. The deposit amount for each course type is set by Barkly Driving School and is published on our Terms & Conditions/Fee Schedule document. Deposit amounts are non-negotiable and include a $100.00 non-refundable administration fee if the course is cancelled for any reason. Students enrolling into a heavy vehicle course on a Saturday are required to pay the full course fees upfront.

Re-assessments

In the case that an applicant fails their theory or driving test, retesting is free of charge although there are extra charges for further training. The training cost for each heavy vehicle licence category is $150.00 per hour, the number of hours is dependent on how many hours the instructor advises the applicant requires. Retests are not conducted on the same day as the original course and can be up to a 6-week wait, depending on Barkly Driving School's booking schedule. Retesting is only completed on weekdays.

Licencing fees

On successful completion of a heavy vehicle course, students are issued with a Certificate of Competency which they are required to take to a VicRoads customer service center before driving a truck.
