Training & Assessment

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT)

It should be noted that

Competency-based training places emphasis on the workplace application of attained knowledge and skills - not how long spent in training or the amount of knowledge acquired in a formal learning environment.

The RTO will ensure the following definition of Credit Transfer is implemented:

Credit Transfer:

Credit transfer assesses the initial course or subject that an individual is using to claim access to, or the award of credit in, a destination course. The assessment determines the extent to which the client's initial course or subject is equivalent to the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards in a qualification. This may include credit transfer based on formal learning that is outside the AQF.

Australian Qualifications and Statements of Attainments that have been issued by any other Registered Training Organisation (RTO) will be recognised by Barkly Driving School. To apply for a Credit Transfer, students must be able to present their original Qualification or Statement of Attainment with National codes and titles that match the current course in which they are enrolled.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the acknowledgment of skills and knowledge obtained through formal training, work experience and/or life experience. The purpose of this process is to identify and assess previously acquired skills and knowledge against the required competency standards.

Course students applying for RPL must provide evidence to the satisfaction of Barkly Driving School. This evidence must clearly indicate that the applicant is able to demonstrate all the required skills and knowledge.

Information and documentation regarding the application procedure for RPL and/or Credit Transfers will be made available to all students upon request.

Please note that RPL cannot be granted for part of a unit. Any applicant may appeal in writing against a decision regarding RPL to the Director by following the 'Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure.'

Language Literacy and Numeracy

Barkly Driving School recognises that reading, writing, listening, speaking and understanding mathematical concepts and processes are integral skills required for work and are therefore an important component of training. As all students are individuals with different life experiences, literacy and numeracy skills vary.

As part of the enrolment process, the student will need to complete a Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) exercise which will be used to assess the LLN ability of the student. Some students may be referred on for special help as required before booking in for a course and/or training.

We do encourage students with Language Literacy or Numeracy concerns to undertake training (once a LLN test has been completed). A range of support services can be provided for the student upon request. If you have a Language Literacy or Numeracy concern that is affecting your training program, we encourage you to raise the matter directly with your Trainer.

Training Evaluation

Barkly Driving School fully appreciates and acts accordingly to any feedback that you give us. Students are encouraged to bring any issues of concern they may have to the attention of appropriate staff as soon as possible. This ensures the ability for the RTO to address any immediate areas of concern. Feedback shall be gained from the student at various points throughout the program at an informal level. The RTO shall also conduct formal feedback at two (2) occasions throughout the student course (midpoint and completion):
